
Contents

● Previous Years' Solved Papers

1. Drama 3–85

Emergence of Drama as a Literary Force	3
Twentieth Century Drama	3
Realism	4
Drama of Ideas	4
The Irish Movement	5
Stephen Phillips (1864-1915)	6
John Masefield (1878-1967)	6
John Drinkwater (1882-1937)	6
Lascelles Abercrombie (1881-1938)	6
Dr. Gordon Bottomley	7
T.S. Eliot (1888-1965)	7
Angry Young Men	8
Non-Radical Social Protestors	8
Radical Leftists, Revolutionists, and Anarchists ...	8
Theatre of the Absurd	8
The Drama of the Absurd	9
'The Drama of Ideas' in the Twentieth Century	10
The Element of Propaganda	11
Historical Dramatists of the 20th Century	13
Poetic Drama and its Dramatists	14
The Victorian Drama	18
The Victorian Dramatists	19
Twentieth Century Dramatist	22
Development of Drama in Post-War England and After	28
Major Post-War Dramatists	30
Main trends in modern Drama	34
The 'New Wave' Playwrights of the 1950s and After	36
Future of English Drama	36
Dramatist	37
1. Ben Jonson	37
2. John Dryden	42
3. George Bernard Shaw	50
4. John Galsworthy	60
5. Harold Pinter	65
6. Eugene Gladstone O' Neill	69
7. Arthur Miller	75
8. Girish Raghunath Karnad	81

2. Poetry 86–182

The Pre-Raphaelite Poetry	86
Main Trends and Features of the Victorian Poetry	87
Influence of Scientific thought on the Victorian Literature	88
Famous Poets	90
1. John Milton	90
2. John Donne	98
3. Alexander Pope	101
4. Thomas Gray	106
5. William Wordsworth	111
6. Percy Bysshe Shelley	118
7. John Keats	124
8. Alfred Tennyson	129
9. Robert Browning	133
10. Matthew Arnold	137
11. William Butler Yeats	141
12. Thomas Stearns Eliot	145
13. Wystan Hugh Auden	151
14. Ted Hughes (Edward James Hughes)	155
15. Philip Larkin	157
16. Walt Whitman	159
17. Emily Elizabeth Dickinson	161
18. Robert Lee Frost	162
19. Rabindranath Tagore	167
20. Nissim Ezekiel	171
21. Kamala Das	174
22. Attipat Krishnaswami Ramanujan	177
23. Derek Walcott	179

3. Fiction, Short Story 183–319

The Victorian Novel	183
Future of the English Novel	185
Historical Prose and the Works of the Historians of the 20th Century	188
Fiction and Story Writers	188
1. Francis Bacon	188
2. Joseph Addison	194
3. Richard Steele	199
4. Charles Lamb	204

5. Edward Verrall Lucas	210	Learning	354
6. Alfred George Gardiner	212	Stages in Language Acquisition	355
7. Bertrand Russell	215	Language as Performance and Language Learning	356
8. Richard Wright	219	Factors Affecting Language Learning: Physical, Psychological and Social Factors	356
9. Mahatma Gandhi	223	Aims and Objectives of Teaching English: Prose, Poetry, Grammar, Composition and Pedagogical Analysis	358
10. Jawaharlal Nehru	229	Role of Language in Life: Cultural, Social, Emotional and Intellectual Development	359
11. William Somerset Maugham	233	Practice Questions	362
12. Anita Desai	236	6. English in India : History, Evolution and Futures 371–385
13. Katherine Mansfield	240	English as a Second Language	371
14. O' Henry	243	English as a Global Language	371
15. Henry Fielding	246	Language Learning Theories	372
16. Jane Austen	249	Advantages and Challenges	374
17. Charles Dickens	255	Multilingualism in ELT	374
18. Thomas Hardy	260	From Translation to Collaboration in Language Learning	375
19. George Orwell	265	The Benefits of Collaborative Learning	376
20. Virginia Woolf	271	Practice Questions	376
21. William Golding	278	7. Cultural Studies..... 386–411
22. Nathaniel Hawthorne	283	Concepts Related to the Cultural Studies	386
23. Ernest Hemingway	288	Many Theorists Explain the Concept of Power ...	386
24. John Steinbeck	293	Sources of Power	387
25. Raja Rao	297	Deconstruction or Post structuralism	392
26. R.K. Narayan	302	Renaissance	393
27. Kamala Markandaya	309	Reformation	393
28. Chinua Achebe	315	Neo-Classicism	394
4. Non-Fictional Prose 320–349		Metaphysical Poets	394
The Contribution of the Age to Prose	320	Romanticism	395
What is a Periodical Essay?	321	Pre-Raphaelites	395
Daniel Defoe (1661-1731)	325	Modernism and Postmodernism	395
Samuel Richardson (1689-1761)	327	Impressionism	397
Henry Fielding (1707-1754)	328	Expressionism	397
Smollett and Sterne	328	Surrealism	397
Eminent Writers of the Comedy of Manners	330	Psycho-analytic Criticism in the modern age	398
American Prose	332	Modern Man's Predicament and its Effect on Poetry	399
Contemporary Age in an Era of Prose and Journalism	334	Practice Questions	401
Novel	336	8. Literary Criticism 412–448
Practice Questions	338	Plato (427 B.C. - 347 B.C.)	413
5. Language : Basic Concepts, Theories and Pedagogy 350–370		Aristotle (384 B.C.-322 B.C.)	413
Language Around Us	350	Longinus, "The First Romantic Critic"	416
Concept of Language, Nature of English Language and its Importance in Human Life	350	On the Sublime: An Analysis	416
Nature of English Language	350
Philosophy of Language Learning - Linguistic, Social, Academic Demands	353
Learning Process in Language Acquisition	353
Language Acquisition Versus Language

The Roman Classicists:		Poetry in the 1960s and the 1970s	462
Horace and Quintilian	417	Major Post-War Poets	462
Dante (1265-1321)	418	Practice Questions	466
The Renaissance Criticism in England	418	10. Research Methods and Materials in
Neo-Classicism in English Literary Criticism	419	English	475–492
The Romantic Criticism	423	Types of Research	475
Victorian Criticism	425	Characteristics of Research	476
Matthew Arnold	426	Objectives of Research	476
Modern Criticism	428	Research Approaches	476
Contemporary Criticism	432	Significance of Research	477
Basic Principles of the New Criticism	432	Research Process	477
Structuralism and Post-Structuralism	433	Important Terms used in Research Method	479
Feminist Criticism	435	Aims and Objectives and Literary Research	480
History or Ideology?	437	Autobiographical Methods	481
Trends in Modern Literary Criticism	438	Oral History	481
Chief Trends and Schools	438	Visual Methodologies	482
The Sociological Critics	440	Discourse Analysis	482
Practice Questions	441	The Uses of Ethnographic Methods in
9. Literary Theory Post World War II .. 449–474		English Studies	482
Historical Background 1945-1990	449	Numbers and Words: Quantitative
20th Century Literature	450	Methods for Scholars of Texts	483
20th Century Novel	451	Textual Analysis	483
Major Novelists	451	Interviewing	484
Main Trends Since the Second World War	457	Bibliography	486
Poetry of the Second World War	461	Research Ethics	486
Women Poets	461	Ethics for Good Research	486
The Movement (1950s)	461	Practice Questions	487